

Cookies Policy

This Cookies Policy explains how the website <https://qi.demokritos.gr/> (hereinafter the “Website”) of the National Centre for Scientific Research “Demokritos” (hereinafter “NCSR “D”) uses cookies.

What are Cookies

Cookies are small text files stored on the device used to access a website. They are used to remember your preferences or to ensure the proper functioning of the website. Cookies cannot access other files on your computer, nor can they cause damage to your system.

The Website uses cookies technologies to store small text files on your computer or mobile device. These cookies are retrieved each time you visit the Website, allowing us to remember your preferences and collect basic information during your browsing session.

Cookies are divided into mandatory cookies (“strictly necessary”), which are essential for the operation of the Website and for which – according to the applicable legislation on the protection of electronic communications – consent is not required, and optional cookies, which are installed only if accepted by each visitor.

Consent for the installation and operation of optional cookies may be given and withdrawn at any time, as stated in the table below. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out prior to such withdrawal.

The IQCQT of NCSR “D” may update this Cookie Policy from time to time; therefore, please visit this page regularly in order to remain informed. This Cookie Policy is supplemented by the Privacy Notice regarding the processing of personal data through the Website, which is available in the footer of the Website.

How long are Cookies stored on your device?

The storage period of a cookie depends on whether it is a session cookie or a persistent cookie. Session cookies are stored on your device until you close the browser you are using. Persistent cookies remain on your device even after you complete your browsing session, until they expire or you delete them *.

 Modification of persistent cookie preferences: You may modify your preferences regarding persistent cookies by referring to the help guide of your browser (deleting or disabling cookies). For more information on deleting or disabling cookies, you may visit the links below, depending on the browser you use:*
